INFORMATION

(1) Date of accrual of tax. - The real property tax for any year shall attach and become due and payable on the first day of January and from the same date said tax and all penalties subsequently accruing thereon shall constitute a lien upon the property subject to such tax. Said lien shall be superior to all other liens, mortgages or encumbrances of any kind whatsoever; shall be enforceable against the property whether in the possession of the delinquent or any subsequent owner or possessor, and shall be removable only by the payment of the delinquent taxes and penalties.

The real property tax on properties actually, directly, and exclusively used for educational purposes as provided under Presidential Decree No. 201 shall begin to accrue on January 1, 1975. (Sec. 56, P.D. 464)

(2) Notice of time for collection of taxes. - The provincial or municipal treasurer shall, on or before the thirty-first of January each year, cause notice of the periods during which real property tax may be paid without penalty in their respective jurisdiction to be posted at the main entrance of the provincial building or municipal hall and of all municipal buildings and in a public conspicuous place in each barrio, and published in a newspaper and announced by crier at least three times. (See 58, 1st par., P.D. 464)

(3) Penalty for delinquency. - Failure to pay the real property tax before the expiration of the period for the payment without penalty of the quarterly installments thereof shall subject the taxpayer to the payment of a penalty of two per centum on the amount of the delinquent tax for each month of delinquency or fraction thereof, until the delinquent tax shall be fully paid. Provided, That in no case shall the total penalty exceed twenty-four per centum of the delinquent tax. The rate of penalty for tax delinquency fixed herein shall be uniformly applied in all provinces and cities. (Sec. 60, P.D. 464)

(4) Remedies to enforce collection of taxes and penalties due. -

(a) Remedies cumulative, simultaneous and unconditional. - Collection of the real property tax may be enforced through any or all of the remedies provided under this Code, and the use or non-use of one remedy shall not be a bar against the institution of the others. Formal demand for the payment of the delinquent taxes and penalties due need not be made before any of such remedies may be resorted to; notice of delinquency as required by Section sixty-five hereof shall be sufficient for the purpose. (Sec. 67, P.D. 464)

(b) Distraint of personal property for delinquency. - After delinquency in the payment of the real property tax for the year has occurred, payment of such tax may be enforced by distraining the personal property including the crops growing on land of the delinquent taxpayer. In such case, the provincial or municipal treasurer or his deputy shall issue a duly authenticated certificate, based upon the records of his office, showing the fact of delinquency and the amount of tax and penalty due, and this shall be sufficient warrant for the seizure of any non-exempt personal property belonging to the delinquent taxpayer in question. Such process may be executed by the provincial or municipal treasurer, his deputy or any officer authorized to execute legal process. (Sec. 68, P.D. 464)

(c) Advertisement of sale of real property of public auction. - After the expiration of the year for which the tax is due, the provincial or municipal treasurer shall advertise the sale at public auction of the entire delinquent real property, except real property mentioned in subsection (a) of Section forty hereof, to satisfy all the taxes and penalties due and the costs of sale. Such advertisement shall be made by posting a notice for three consecutive weeks at the main entrance of the provincial building and of all municipal buildings in the case of cities, and in a public and conspicuous place in barrio or district wherein the property is situated, in English, Spanish and the local dialect commonly used, and by announcement at least three market days at the market by crier, and, in the discretion of the provincial or municipal treasurer, by publication once a week for three consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in the province or city.

The notice, publication, and announcement by crier shall state the amount of the taxes, penalties and costs of sale, the date, hour, and place of sale, the name of the taxpayer against whom the tax was assessed, and the kind or nature of property and if land, its approximate area, lot number, and location stating the street and block number, district or barrio, municipality and the province or city where the property to be sold is situated.

Copy of the notice shall forthwith be sent either by registered mail or by messenger, or through the barrio to the delinquent taxpayer, at his address as shown in the tax rolls or property tax record cards of the municipality where the property is located, or at his residence, if known to said treasurer or barrio captain. Provided, however, That a return of the proof of service under oath shall be filed by the person making the service with the provincial or municipal treasurer concerned. (Sec. 73, P.D. 464)

(d) Collection of real property tax through the courts. - The delinquent real property tax shall constitute a lawful indebtedness of the taxpayer to the province or city and collection of the tax may be enforced by civil action in any court of competent jurisdiction. The civil action shall be filed by the Provincial or Municipal Fiscal within fifteen days after receipt of the statement of delinquency certified to by the provincial or municipal treasurer. This remedy shall be in addition to all other remedies provided by law. (Sec. 82, P.D. 464)

(5) Use of this official receipt. - For every payment made on account of taxes and penalties on real property, a receipt on this form shall be issued. A taxpayer should be careful to see that the receipt issued to him correctly states his name, the amount paid by him, and all other particulars required by the blank spaces of the receipt.
